CMA's temporary and interim candidates have completed CMA's rigorous registration process, which includes a face to face or virtual meeting, qualification checks, eligibility checks and testing (where relevant). Candidates have been fully referenced and are remote working ready, allowing for a straightforward and quick turnaround time.

If you would like to find out more about this candidate or similar candidates, or would like to have an informal conversation about how CMA Recruitment Group can support your recruitment requirements, please do not hesitate to get in touch with your local office.

Charge rates are based on an average cost and can vary based on factors such as location, organisation size, candidate availability and experience levels. All charge rates are inclusive of N.I, holiday pay, pension contribution and CMA charges.
